

- To contribute to the implementation of WHO policies and guidelines on blood safety in the region.
- To support WHO in establishing regional network on blood safety.
- To support WHO policies and objectives by organizing and holding training courses, workshops and conferences for other countries in the region on voluntary blood donor recruitment and quality system.